The Realty Auction Market The public sales market of last week was fairly active. The greater part of the dealing was in properties at the extreme ends of the was in properties at the extreme ends of the city. The sale of the old "Lighthouse" at Greenwich and Wesey streets was interesting because of the big knockdown price. The property, which contains about 2,600 square feet, was bought by the Hudson Realty Company at the rate of $2.77 a square foot. The sale of the seven story loft building at Beekman and Pearl streets was noteworthy for another reason. This offering was the only one of the twenty-four sold that brought less than its assessed value. The property is valued by the city at $80,000, or $10 more, than it brought in the auction room. The week's sales aggregated $650,284.

During the present week the bulk of the business will be in Bronx realty. Bryan L. Kennelly will sell to-day at the Vesey Street Exchange 287 lots at Wakefield, between 234th street and Nereid avenue. On Tuesday James L. Wells will offer fifty:lots at Williams-bridge. On Wednesday Mr. Wells will sell five lots with buildings at Westchester and St. Ann's avenues, and Joseph P. Day will offer the private dwelling at 1053: Fifth avenue. This has never been occupied since its erection, except by caretakers. It is a five and one-half story building of expensive construction and finish. For thursday a foreclosure sale by D. P. Paoenix Ingraham of two four story brownstone dwellings at 40 and 42. Fast Forty-first street is scheduled.
